Venice, February 18.

SEveral Tartans laden with Wax, Silk, and other Merchandize, are lately arrived here from Dulcigno. The Maſter of one of thoſe Tartans, which performed Quarantain in Iſtria, reports, that he learned there by ſome Veſſels come in from the Levant, that ſix Men of War at Corfu were taking on board the two German Battallions of Marſhal Schuylemburg's Regiment, which have been disbanded and are returning home. Sig. Loredano who commanded there as General of the Iſlands, is to return hither on board one of the ſaid Men of War, with other Nobles and Officers who ſerved the Republick in thoſe Parts during the late War: After which the ſaid ſix Men of War will be laid up in the Arſenal here. The Senate has conferred the Command of one of their chief Men of War upon Sig. Peſaro, who lately arrived from the Levant, and has finiſhed his Quarantain in the new Lazaretto. They write from Mantua, that two Expreſſes had paſſed by that City having been ſent by the Viceroy of Naples to the Imperial Court, with Diſpatches relating to the Affairs of Sicily; and that another coming from Vienna with Letters for the ſaid Viceroy, had paſſed there likewiſe, taking the Road of Tuſcany. Several of the Imperial Troops quartered in the Cremoneſe and Parmeſan, have been detached for the Kingdom of Naples. On the 16th the Carnival ended with the Diverſions uſually given on that Day to the Populace in St. Mark's-Square, as the cutting off the Head of a Bull, a Man's gliding down a Rope from the Top of St. Mark's Steeple, &c. There was a vaſt Concourſe of People, the Vice-Doge, the Senate, and the Pope's Nuntio being preſent.

Berne, March 1. On the 23d paſt M. Bucher, Member of the Little Council here, and ancient Banderet and Treaſurer of this Canton, was interred with the uſual Solemnity; and ſoon after the Soveraign Council of Two Hundred proceeded to the Choice of another Perſon in his Room. M. Morlot and M. Mutach, two ancient Bailiffs, were propoſed, and the Voices of the Council being equal, the ruling Avoyer, who on the like Occaſions has the caſting Vote, gave his to the former, who immediately after took the Oaths in Quality of ſecret Counſellor. This Canton has ordered the Committee appointed for examining the Differences between this State and that of Neufchatel, to draw up a Letter to the King of Pruſſia, in order to repreſent to his Majeſty the true State of the Matter in Diſpute. They have likewiſe ordered their whole Proceedings to be printed and publiſhed. The whole Body of the Proteſtant Cantons has written a Letter to His Britannick Majeſty, to implore his Aſſiſtance and Interpoſition at the Court of Vienna, in favour of the Proteſtant Churches in Hungary. It is adviſed from Coire, that the three Leagues are treating with Baron Greuth the Imperial Miniſter, about the Paſſage of the Emperour's Troops thro' their Country.

Hamburg, March 3. Yeſterday we received Letters from Stockholm, dated the 15th of February, which adviſe, that the States of that Kingdom having aſſembled, had paſſed a Reſolution that the Princeſs Ulrica was become Queen by Right of Election, not of Succeſſion; to which Reſolution her Majeſty gave her Aſſent. Some of theſe Letters ſay it was expected the States would declare the Prince of Heſſe King, and veſt the Royal Authority jointly in him and the Queen his Conſort. The Count de la Marck, Ambaſſadour of France, has written to M. Pouffin the French Reſident here, that he intended to ſet out from Stockholm on the 21ſt of laſt Month; but as Orders have been ſent to him to remain in Sweden, which Orders were diſpatched from Copenhagen on the 18th paſt, they will meet him on the Road, and oblige him to return to Stockholm.
